

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Dinu Balan was specializing in the history of modernity and nationalism. He was awarded his Ph.D. in 2005, at the “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași, for a thesis on National, nationalism, xenophobia and anti-Semitism in Romanian modern society (1831-1866), which was subsequently published (Iași, 2006). He lectures at the “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, where he teaches Modern Romanian History.

Phone: +4 0230216147 int. 567; e-mail: dinub@atlas.usv.ro

Diana Cașu is a Ph.D. student in Moldavia State University, Faculty of History. Her main fields of research are related to the history of Moldavian SSR, especially issues concerning topics such as women policies and families' policies of the Soviet regime, the role of ideology and propaganda in the educational policy, antireligious and atheistic campaigns.

Phone: +37369376845; E-mail: casudiana@yahoo.com

Tsvetana Cholova is Associate Professor, Head of History Department at New Bulgarian University in Sofia, and Scientific Secretary of the Institute of History of the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. She was educated at the Sofia University, Faculty of History, and obtained her Ph.D. with a thesis entitled Hexaemeron of John the Exarch, as a source for the History of Bulgaria. Her broader research interests focus on the medieval history, the history of sciences, the medieval Bulgarian history, and the Byzantine history. Her publications include: La cosmologie et les systemes cosmographiques en Bulgarie medievale, La diffusion des sciences naturelles bulgares au Moyen Age dans les pays slaves orthodoxes, The Knowledge about the “Inhabited Lands” in the Medieval Bulgaria, The Medieval science in Balkan countries.

Phone: + 35928110613, E-mail: tcholova@abv.bg

Cezar Ciorteanu is currently a Ph.D. student at the Faculty of History and Geography at “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, Romania. He is currently developing a Ph.D thesis on The Frontiers of Bukovina in 1918-1947. In general, he is interested in history of Romania in the 20th Century and in specific matters related to international relations.

Phone: +40742356763; E-mail: cezar_ciorteanu@yahoo.com

Vasile M. Demciuc is currently Lecturer at the Faculty of History and Geography of the “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava. He received his Ph.D. from the Bucharest University in 1994. His field of interest focuses on Romanian medieval art and civilization, Byzantine art and civilization, theology and art of icon, history of the Orthodox Church in the Eastern Europe.

Phone: +40742610337, E-mail: demciuc_vasile@yahoo.com

Violeta-Anca Epure graduated from „Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava in 2002 and completed her doctoral dissertation at the same university (2011). Her research interests include the role of medieval migrations in Eastern-Central Europe and the modernization of Romanian society in the first half of the 19th century.

Phone: +4 0230216147 int. 557; e-mail: violetaanca@atlas.usv.ro

Radu Gabriel Ichim is currently a Ph.D. student at Faculty of History and Geography, “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, Romania. He is now finishing his Ph.D thesis on Work and life of the Primate Metropolitan of Romania, Calinic Miclescu (1822-1886). His field of research is Romanian Orthodox Church in the 18th and 19th centuries.

Phone: +40742973355; E-mail: ichim_radu_gabriel@yahoo.com

Sorin D. Ivănescu graduated from Faculty of History of the “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași, in 1992. He got his Ph.D degree at the same university in 2009, with a thesis entitled Securitatea during 1948-1958. Organization, objectives, methods, which was subsequently published (Iași 2009). He is currently employed as researcher at the Department of Contemporary History, “A. D. Xenopol” Institute of History in Iași. His research focuses on the communist period in Romania.

Phone: +40721260054; e-mail: ivanescu67@yahoo.com

İsmail Köse took his MA degree at Karadeniz Teknik Üniversitesi, Uluslararası İlişkiler Bölümü, in 2002, and was awarded his Ph.D. in History at the same university, in 2013. He is currently employed at Erciyesi Üniversitesi, Turkey. His publications include Paris Barış Konferansı Tutanaklarında Beyaz Ordu Liderleri ve Bolşevikler, The Monastery of Soumela And Ancient Trade Routes Passing Through Altındere Valley, Amiral Bristol'un Günlük Ve Raporlarında İlk Tur Lozan Müzakereleri. He is interested in discussion and research pertaining to Ottoman history and to specific issues of international relations.

Phone: + 904623773000, E-mail: ismailkose@hotmail.com

Stanislav Kulchytskyi is currently Head of the Department of History of Ukraine (1920s – 1930s) at the Institute of History of Ukraine (National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine). His main research interests include the building of communism in Ukraine.

Phone: +380687003112; E-mail: s_kul@ukr.net

Antonii Moisei is Associate Professor at the “Yuriy Fed’kovych” Chernivtsi National University, Ukraine. He obtained a PhD in 2005 with a thesis entitled Romanian Researches of the Bukovinians’ Traditional Culture and Life in late 19th – early 20th Centuries. In 2011 he took his habilitation in History. He specialises on the ethnographic characteristics of communities in Northern Bukovina. He has published several books, studies and articles on Romanian ethnography and traditional practices and rituals, such as Magic and Mantic in the Folk Calendar of the Eastern Romanians of Bukovina (2008), Agrarian Customs and Rituals in the Folk Calendar of the Eastern Romanians of Bukovina (2010).

Phone: +380372524128, E-mail: antoniimoisei@rambler.ru

Arkadiy Moisei, “Honored Teacher of Ukraine”, is currently employed at the “Yuriy Fedkovych” Chernivtsi Pedagogical College, Ukraine. His research focuses on regional history and ethnography.

Phone: +380505300967, E-mail: arcadiimoisei@mail.ru

Akilė Naudžiūnienė is a PhD student in Vilnius University, Faculty of History. Her main academic interests are related to history didactics, history of ethnic minorities, theoretical conceptualization of nationalism and multiculturalism.

Phone: +33062471712; E-mail: akvile.naudziuniene@gmail.com

Vladimir Nevezhin is currently Professor Ph.D, chief-scientific collaborator at the Institute of Russian History of the Russian Academy of Science. His field of research is USSR history. His publications include: «Если завтра в поход...». Советская идеологическая пропаганда 1930-1940-х гг., Москва, 2007; Застолья Иосифа Сталина. Кн. 1. Большие кремлевские приемы 1930-1940 гг., Москва, 2011.

Phone: + 74991269455; E-mail: nevva@mail.ru

Florin Pintescu is currently Associate Professor at “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, Romania where he teaches European Mediaeval History, Theory of the International Relations, Geopolitics and Geostrategy. He was awarded his Ph.D. at “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași, Romania (2003). His main research interests are European mediaeval military history, geopolitics and geostrategy.

Phone: + 40747023832, E-mail: florinp@atlas.usv.ro

Anatoliy Shvab completed a PhD in history and presently is Dean of the History Department of Lesya Ukrainka Eastern European National University. His research interests include topics such as Volyn population emigration from 1921 to 1939, Polish interwar emigration, the emigration policy in the Second Polish Commonwealth, social and economic history of the Western Ukraine from 1921 to 1939.

Phone : +380955850083; E-mail: anatoliyshvab@gmail.com

Artyom A. Ulunyan is currently Professor and researcher at Universal History Institute of the Russian Academy of Sciences. His research interests are focused on the regional studies (Balkans, Central Asia), foreign policy of regional powers in the Balkans and in Central Asia, ethno-politics and geo-spatial constructions in foreign policy doctrines, and studies of the foreign policy experts' and analysts' communities.

Phone: +74959381009; E-mail: dir@igh.ru

Rafał Wiśniewski is Assistant Professor and Head of the Cultural Studies Department in The Institute of Sociology of "Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński" University in Warsaw. He is also the Vice-President of the Polish Sociological Association and member of the Polish Association of African Studies, the European Sociological Association, and the International Sociological Association. He published several books and articles in the field of sociology of culture and intercultural communication.

Phone: +48601212165. E-mail: r.wisniewski@uksw.edu.pl

Radosław Zenderowski holds the positions of Professor at the Department of International Relations and European Studies of the "Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński" University in Warsaw, and Associate Professor at the Department of International Relations (Faculty of Management) of the "Silesian School of Commerce" in Katowice. He is also the Director of the Institute of Political Science of UKSW. Among his works Praca magisterska. Jak pisać i obronić. Wskazówki metodologiczne (2004), Stosunki międzynarodowe. Uczestnicy – ich miejsce i rola w systemie międzynarodowym (2004), Technika pisania prac magisterskich (2005), Stosunki międzynarodowe. Vademecum (2006), Nad Tatrami błyska się... Słowacka tożsamość narodowa w dyskursie politycznym w Republice Słowackiej: 1989-2004 (2007), Religia a tożsamość narodowa i nacjonalizm w Europie Środkowo-Wschodniej. Między etniczyczącją religii a sakralizacją etnosu narodu (2011).

Phone: + 48600431170, E-mail: r.zenderowski@uksw.edu.pl